20/07/2022

To: Mr. MUHAMMAD SHOAIB KHALID, Pakistan

Subject: Award of 2022 ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents

Series No. 2022ANSOM134

Dear Mr. MUHAMMAD SHOAIB KHALID,

On behalf of the ANSO Secretariat, I am pleased to inform you that you have been awarded the ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents to pursue Master's study in China. May I extend you my sincere congratulations!

Please be kindly advised to carefully read the award letter as it contains KEY Information on several important aspects of your Scholarship, including financial, travel and medical arrangements. You are required to SIGN AND RETURN a scanned copy of this entire award letter together with Annex 1 (Acceptance form) to the Sub-office of the ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents in your host university (USTC/UCAS) at your earliest convenience.

The terms and conditions of this Scholarship are as follows:

Basic Information of the Scholarship:

- This Scholarship is tenable at the Dalian Institute of Chemical Physics, CAS, Dalian under the supervision of Prof. Gao LI.
- The effective commencement date of this Scholarship should coincide with the first semester in China around early September, 2022 (the exact date to be decided and confirmed with your host university). The funding duration of this Scholarship is maximum of 3 years with no extension.

Financial and Medical Arrangements Covered by the Scholarship:

- Exemption from tuition fees
- Monthly stipend: RMB 3,000 (It covers your living expenses, local travel and health care insurance)
- One-way ticket allowance from your home country to China. Awardees who are located in China at the time of application will NOT be eligible for any international travel allowance.
- One-time visa/residence permit allowance

(See ANNEX 2 for the standards of the international travel allowance and visa/residence permit allowance for 2022.)

A Note of Importance:

If you fail the annual assessments, you will face the following possible consequences:

- Termination of your scholarship;
- Discontinuity of your Master's study.

Acknowledgement of Support by the Scholarship:

- The Scholarship requires you to acknowledge the intellectual and material contributions of ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents in your research work, and in all publications and patents emanating from the research. Both UCAS/USTC and ANSO must be sent copies of any publications and patents stemming from your research in China as well as a copy of your thesis.
- At the end of your scholarship, you and your supervisor are required to submit a summary report to UCAS/USTC and ANSO. A sample of these reports will be sent to you in due time.

Additional/Supplementary Grants & Bursaries:

- You are required to register at UCAS/USTC as per the scheduled time of admission notice, which is early September, 2022. You are automatically ineligible for this scholarship if you have already registered for a Master's in China upon receiving the letter.
- The Scholarship requires you to inform UCAS/USTC and ANSO of other grants, funds, bursaries etc., if you have any that overlaps within the same timeframe of this award.

Rules & Regulations:

- The Scholarship requires that you observe and adhere to the conditions of the ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents, and the rules, regulations, policies and conditions of research at UCAS/USTC and laws in China. The ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents may be terminated on account of breach of standard regulations and procedures.
- For medical reasons, including pregnancy, the validity of the Scholarship may be deferred. If there is such a case, you must inform the Sub-office of the ANSO Scholarship for Young Talents at your host university prior to travelling.

If you decide to accept this offer, please sign this award letter and return a scanned copy of the entire document to UCAS/USTC within 7 days after receiving it together with the completed acceptance form (ANNEX 1 attached). The hard copies of these signed documents should be returned to your host university within 7 days after your registration. Otherwise, your Scholarship may become null and void.

I want to extend my warm welcome to you and I sincerely hope you will make best use of it.

With my kindest regard,

Prof. Jinghua Cao

Executive Director,

Secretariat of the Alliance of International Science Organizations (ANSO)
